

Amazing Shark Facts

Read the statements below and decide whether you agree, partly agree or disagree with them. Tick the appropriate box when you have made your decision.

Use a different coloured pen or pencil at the start of the unit and repeat this activity at the end of the unit and see if you improve.

	Agree	Partly Agree	Disagree
A shark can have up to 30 000 teeth in its lifetime.
Sharks like to eat people.
Sharks are fish.
Sharks are the largest animals in the sea.
Sharks breathe using gills.
Shark bones are made of the same material as your nose and ears.
All sharks lay eggs.
Sharks have an acute sense of smell.
Sharks are very dangerous to humans.
Sharks are protected in some parts of the world.
Shark skin is very smooth.
Great White Sharks can live for more than 100 years.
Sharks have very poor eyesight.
Shark mothers care for their young until they are about 6 months old.
Sharks have to keep moving to stay alive.
Sharks have an 'electro-sense' which can detect the electrical signals of other animals.
Some sharks can smell a single drop of blood in the water half a kilometre away.
Sharks do not have eyelids.
The largest sharks are the most dangerous.
The Hammerhead Shark got its name because of the shape of its tail.
Humans are far more dangerous to sharks than sharks are to humans.
A shark can 'throw up' by forcing its stomach out of its mouth.
More people die from bee stings than from shark bites.
Sometimes you eat shark when you eat 'fish and chips'.
Megalodon Sharks lived when the dinosaurs did.			